

Netflix Streaming is here!
£6 a month for unlimited
films & TV Programmes

Offer Expires 15 May 2012

Don't you hate wasting time looking for what to watch? Wouldn't it be AWESOME if after work, you could just put your feet up, and find the perfect film to watch?

Do you think going to the store to buy a DVD just SUCKS?

Netflix solves all these problems. You simply choose what you want to watch on our website. And it instantly starts streaming.

No more waiting. No more hassle. It's easy.

Netflix has liberated more than 20 million film and TV watchers like you. You can join the movement too...

Why Netflix?

At £6 a month, instantly watch unlimited films

At only £6 a month you can enjoy an UNLIMITED amount of films and TV programmes. Netflix also has a 30 day FREE trial.

Netflix is available everywhere

Netflix instantly streams your programme to your TV with a Wii, PS3 and Xbox 360. It's also enabled with certain Internet-connected HDTVs, Blu-ray players and more! You can also watch it online on your computer, iPhone, iPad or selected Android phones. You can instantly watch as much as you want, whenever you want.

Watch films & TV programmes whenever you want

Unlike traditional TV services, you can watch whatever you're in the mood for at anytime you want. Want to watch the latest blockbuster in the day? Netflix can help you with that. Netflix also doesn't have a 24 hour time limit for watching something. You can pause or stop a film at night, and watch it the next week! Make your TV work for you, don't work for it.

Save time and money

With Netflix, you'll never need to leave the house for another film again! You can instantly stream something from a choice of thousands of film & TV programmes. They're even rated and Netflix offers personalised recommendations, making it easy and quick to find something to watch!
